

K-LOVE inspires my family and me throughout each day. With so much that is not good in the world, it is so nice to have a station to encourage us and that my young children can listen to also. Our community would lose good, wholesome entertainment if it was displaced by an LPFM broadcaster. The general public needs uplifting and encouraging stations like K-LOVE to stay on the air.